

St Katherine's School Governors

Mike Amos

Mike is a local farmer and businessman who has worked in education as a teacher, FE and University Lecturer. He is a former board member of the Learning and Skills Council and the National Curriculum Council where he wrote the original science national curriculum. He is also a former examiner and assessor for two of the main examination boards. Mike is a member of the Local Enterprise Rural Strategic Economy Committee specialising in skills development. He has been a St Katherine's governor for 17 years and is our link governor for Health and Safety.

Helen Argo – Vice Chair

Helen has worked in animation production for over 16 years and is an Executive Producer at Aardman Animations. She lives in Pill with her family and since joining the governing body at St Katherine's in 2014 continues to enjoy the challenges of understanding and contributing to school governance.

Jan Burnell

Jan works in the financial services industry. She joined the governing body in January 2014 and hopes that the knowledge and experience she has gained from having two children at St Katherine's can be put to good use in building on the schools continuing improvement for all its pupils.

Glen Davies

Glen is a qualified bank manager with experience of finance, project /change management and risk. Glen is a father of two children, who attend schools in Portishead, and joined the governors in October 2014. He is our link governor for Pupil Premium.

William Harding – Chair

Until his recent retirement Will held responsibility for the strategic and operational HR work of a large Unitary Authority. He is a political science graduate with a post-doctorate diploma in management and has held a number of different roles in people management. He is also a chartered member of the Institute of Personnel and Development. He has a remarkable 30 years of service as a governor much of which has been at St Katherine's School where his two children studied. He is currently a board member of Inspirational Futures Trust.

Sarah Parslow

Sarah has been a member of the governing body since 2010 and is the link Governor for SEN and Inclusion. Sarah works in HR, Training and Project Management and is currently an Audit and Compliance Manager for an environmental company. She has two children at university both of whom studied at St Katherine's.

Tom Hodgson - Staff Governor

Justin Humphreys - Headteacher