

Whatever your next steps are, here are links to organisations and websites that have useful sources of information and advice.

Careerpilot

Career Pilot helps you plan your study and work with useful information for your choices at 14, 16 and 18 and routes to different qualifications and job sectors. Also offers insights on different careers you may be interested in pursuing.

<https://www.careerpilot.org.uk/>

UCAS

UCAS connects people to University, post-university studies (including teacher training) apprenticeships & internships. Find all the information for your next step. <https://wwwucas.com/>

Unifrog offers information and advice on choosing the best Universities and Apprenticeships for you. <https://www.unifrog.org/>

Careers Advice for Parents – useful tips for parents, carers and teachers to help you understand what learning and training options are available for your child. <https://www.careersadviceforparents.org/>

Fast Tomato

Fast Tomato has been designed to help 12-18 year olds to broaden their horizons and consider a broader spectrum of career and education options. <https://www.fasttomato.com/>

National Careers
Service®

The National Careers Service provides information, advice and guidance to help you make decisions on learning, training and work <https://nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk/>

The government's Apprenticeships pages help you understand what it takes to become an apprentice and which apprenticeships are out there to apply for <https://www.gov.uk/topic/further-education-skills/apprenticeships>

Pathway helps you choose the right pathways when you leave school to improve your employability and career prospects. <https://pathwayctm.com/>

Showing you all the current apprenticeships out there and how to apply for them <https://apprenticeships.qa.com/>